APPROPRIATIONS.

The House Appropriation Committee have agreed upon about one-quarter of the estimates from the Secretary of War, and many considerable reductions have been made in some of the regiments. The greatest appropriations will be in the Quartermaster's department, and there will be no greater reduction from the previous year, which was reported to reduce that department over $10,000,000. The Engineer and Ordnance bill has been reduced. The Indian bill will be the next one considered. The Military Academy bill has been reduced. The Indian bill will be the next one considered. HONORS OUT OF THE ARMY.

Twenty-five persons petition the Senate of a yearling graduate of West Point, who has resigned, that he may be allowed to leave his name, record, grade or standing, and permission to wear the uniform of the army. The petitioners are all of the highest respectability. It was a funny week-day for petitioning.

Yet, John maintains that this declaration, particularly proper in war, means, we have served two of three years, and we have had enough of it. We have been shot at, and we have been shot over, and we have been shot under, and we have been shot around, and we have been shot through, and we have been shot to pieces, and we have been shot to death, and we have been shot to the devil, and we have been shot to the deuce, and we have been shot to the dickens, and we have been shot to the mischief, and we have been shot to the nation, and we have been shot to the mischief, and we have been shot to the nation, and we have been shot to the devil, and we have been shot to the deuce, and we have been shot to the dickens

THE COURTS.

Resignation of Judge Drummond—His New Circuit.

Collision on the Lake—Prisoners Sentenced on Saturday.

United States District Court.

JUDGE DRUMMOND LEAVES THIS COURT.

On Saturday Judge Drummond resigned his position as Judge of this Court, receiving the order and decree of the Circuit Judgeship since the re-organization system of the United States.

The following is the order of the Court announcing the resignation:

ORDER.

Now, on this 8th day of January, A. D. 1870, it appearing to the Court that the Hon. Thomas Drummond has resigned his office as District Judge of the United States for the Northern District of Illinois, and has been appointed Circuit Judge of the United States for the Seventh Circuit, and has entered upon the duties of his office as such Circuit Judge, and that he will no longer perform the duties of District Judge in this District, it is ordered that the Clerk of this Court enter of record the resignation of said Judge Drummond as District Judge of this District.

JOHN GRAVES SHORTALL, Clerk.

Judge Drummond then addressed the Court as follows:

MAY IT PLEASE THE COURT:—I have received my commission as Circuit Judge of the Seventh Circuit, and have entered upon the duties of that office. I have, therefore, resigned my office as District Judge of this District, and have requested the Clerk to enter my resignation of record. I have done this because I have been appointed to a new office, and not because I have any dissatisfaction with the old one. I have been District Judge for nearly nine years, and have had the pleasure of the acquaintance of the members of the bar during that time. I have had the pleasure of their confidence and support, and I have had the pleasure of their friendship. I have had the pleasure of their kindness and courtesy. I have had the pleasure of their assistance in the discharge of my duties. I have had the pleasure of their forbearance with my infirmities. I have had the pleasure of their indulgence with my errors. I have had the pleasure of their sympathy in my sorrows. I have had the pleasure of their congratulations in my joys. I have had the pleasure of their generous appreciation of my efforts to do my duty. I have had the pleasure of their cordial co-operation in the discharge of my official duties. I have had the pleasure of their hearty support in the administration of the business of the Court. I have had the pleasure of their unfailing courtesy to me in all the relations of life. I have had the pleasure of their unfailing courtesy to the Court
